

Matthew Boynton

Matthew Boynton is a vice president and senior trader at Loomis, Sayles & Company, focusing on US Treasuries trading as well as supporting securitized trading. He joined Loomis Sayles in 2008 as a fixed income portfolio analyst, was promoted to trading assistant in 2010, and to junior trader in 2014. Previously, Matthew was lead operations specialist at Brown Brothers Harriman. He began his investment industry career in 2006. Matthew earned a BS in economics from The Pennsylvania State University.